MAGISTRATE COURT

Judge Daniel Reyes Jr.
Dec. 9 — Sammy Natera, 27, of Artesia, pleaded not guilty to a single count of battery against a household member and District Attorney Terry Haake dropped the charges because the alleged victim changed her statement and the state was unable to proceed with prosecution.

Dec. 9 — William McCormack, 27, of Artesia pleaded not guilty to a single count of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs and District Attorney Terry Haake dropped the charges because he said there was insufficient evidence to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Dec. 9 — Ruben Madrid, 38, of Artesia, pleaded guilty to battery against a household member. Sentenced to 364 days in jail with all but 22 days suspended; credit given for 22 days served. Ordered to serve 365 days of supervised probation and 341 days of unsupervised probation. Total court costs $67.

Dec. 9 — A pre-trial conference has been set for 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 14 for Willie Aragon Jr., 29, of Dexter, charged with possession of drug paraphernalia.

Jacob Oliver Burcham

Jacob Oliver Burcham, 31, of Big Spring, died on Tuesday, Dec. 9, from injuries in an accident. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 12, at the Nalley-Pickle & Welch Rosewood Chapel with Pastor Courtney Ballard of the Cowboy Church officiating. Interment will follow at Trinity Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

He was born on Dec. 22, 1976, in Big Spring, Texas, and married Cherrie McSwain on Feb. 25, 2000, in Sand Springs.

He graduated fourth in his class at Lake Arthur High School and was listed in Who's Who. He was a published poet and a song writer and singer. Jacob was a carpenter and a jack of all trades. He was a great husband, son, uncle and brother. He loved his family, kids, cars and making people laugh. Jacob had been employed by Pecos Petroleum as a truck driver for the last two years.

Survivors include his wife, Cherrie Lee Burcham of Big Spring; his father and step-mother, David and Cindy Burcham of Big Spring; his mother, Darlene Burcham of Big Spring; one brother, Joshua Burcham of Big Spring; his paternal grandmother, Jewell Burcham and his maternal grandmother, Melba Passmore both of Big Spring; a nephew, Caleb David Burcham of Big Spring; and two step-sisters, Charlotte Carillo of Big Spring and Tracy Cooley of Gail.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Phillip Burcham and R.H. Rowden, and his father-in-law, Dewey McSwain.

The family suggests memorials to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, Tenn. 38105-1942.

Arrangements under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home & Crematory of Big Spring. Online condolences can be made at www.npwelch.com.

Sharon Hickey

Memorial services are scheduled at 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 13, at Terpening and Son Chapel for Sharon Hickey of Artesia.

Hickey, 59, died Tuesday, Dec. 9, at her home.

David Brunson will officiate at the services. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Terpening and Son Mortuary. Honorary pallbearers will be Mike Crouch, Carl Morgan, Steven Wilson, Tim Baize, Steve Shaw, Rodney Shaw, Harry Shaw and Keith Stone.

Hickey was born Jan. 11, 1949, in Ft. Collins, Colo.; the daughter of Henry P. Meyer and Dorothy (Hartung) Meyer.

On Aug. 20, 1968, she was married to Albert J. Hickey in Sidney, Neb. She came to Artesia in 1972 from Carney, Neb. He preceded her in death January 2008. She was also preceded in death by her father, Henry, in December 1980.

Sharon was an office manager for Morgan Tools and throughout her career she held executive administrative positions. She was a member of Grace Fellowship, active in community Bible study, leader of the Hebraic Dance Troupe and a former member of the Junior Women's Club.

Survivors include her mother Dorothy Meyer of Artesia; son Christopher Hickey of Artesia; sisters Gwen Stone and husband Keith of Sidney, Neb., and Judy Shaw and husband Steve of Rio Rancho; and six nieces.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Vista Care Foundation, 611 N. Canal, Carlsbad, N.M. 88220.

Services are under the direction of Terpening and Son Mortuary. Family and friends may view the obituary and sign the online guest book at www.artesiafunerals.com.
